

NATIONAL BANK OF KAZAKHSTAN

PUBLIC INFORMATION NOTICE

January inflation sped up in 14 regions of Kazakhstan

Astana

18 February 2025

In January, annual inflation in the country increased and made 8,9% (8,6% in December 2024). Increase in the annual inflation was reported in 14 regions, in 6 it remained unchanged.

The highest value of the annual inflation was recorded in Astana.

Prices for food products in January rose to 5,8% y/y (5,5% in December 2024). The maximum increase in prices for goods in this group was in Zhetysay Region (7,9%), the minimum - in Turkestan Region (3,3%).

Growth rate of prices for non-food products in January went up to 8,4% y/y (8,3% in December 2024). Maximum value was recorded in Turkestan Region (13,1%), minimum – in Pavlodar Region (5,7%). Prices for paid services in January accelerated their growth rate to 13,8% y/y (13,3% in December 2024). Along with that, prices grew significantly higher than the national level in Astana (17,8%), significantly lower - in Turkestan Region (9,3%).

Meanwhile, monthly inflation in the country grew by 1,1% in January.

For more details visit the Internet resource of the National Bank

For more details mass media can contact:

8 (7172) 77-52-10

e-mail: press@nationalbank.kz

www.nationalbank.kz