

NATIONAL BANK OF KAZAKHSTAN

PUBLIC INFORMATION NOTICE

Results of Introduced Termless Exchange of Banknotes of National Currency

July 22, 2021

The National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter the NBK) provides a reminder that on June 12, 2021 it launched a termless period for exchange of banknotes issued in 2006 and later. Overall, during that period residents of Kazakhstan exchanged 43,385 banknotes for a total amount of more than 113 million KZT.

The bulk of requests to exchange banknotes were received from residents of the cities of Almaty (19.4%), Nur-Sultan (11.7%), Karaganda Region (7.2%). The majority of paper money accepted for exchange is banknotes of 500 KZT denomination (43.7%).

We would remind that outdated banknotes of 500, 1,000, 2,000, 5,000 and 10,000 KZT denomination of 2006 standard can be exchanged for valid currency units in regional NBK branches.

When a new banknote is issued, simultaneous circulation will be 12 months. Banknotes of both old and new standard will be a legal instrument of payment and they must be accepted for all types of payments during a year.

After a banknote is out of circulation, it can be exchanged during 3 years both in branches of the National Bank, second-tier banks and in divisions of Kazpost JSC. Upon lapse of the 3-year period outdated banknotes can be exchanged during a termless period at NBK branches.

Addresses and contacts of branches are available on our website.

Media representatives may get more detailed information by request:

+7 (7172) 77- 52-10

e-mail: press@nationalbank.kz

www.nationalbank.kz