

NATIONAL BANK OF KAZAKHSTAN

PRESS RELEASE

Issue of 20,000 KZT Banknote into circulation

Astana

September 30, 2022

On October 1, 2022, the National Bank of Kazakhstan issues into circulation a banknote of 20,000 KZT nominal value.

The banknote is designed in the same style with the banknotes already in circulation. Thus, its observe side contains mostly vertical images, while horizontal ones are represented onto its reverse side. Design is made using a demetallized strip located along the entire vertical, with a holographic image of the face value.

The banknote has 25 security elements and is made in a predominant gray color with a size of 155x79 mm.

The observe side of the banknote depicts the state symbols of the Republic of Kazakhstan, monument Kazakh Eli, Triumphal Arch 'Mangilik El', a fragment of the Kazakh national ornament Baskur and number '30', symbolizing the years of Independence.

The reverse side of the banknote contains a panoramic view of Astana City and the Akorda Presidential Residence.

The banknote of 20,000 tenge with a new design must be accepted at its nominal value throughout the Republic of Kazakhstan for the all types of payments as well as for crediting to bank accounts and for transfer, change and exchange in any bank of the country.

This banknote is an addition to the current range of circulation banknotes of the national currency of the 'Kazakh Eli' Series, which is currently represented by denominations of 500, 1,000, 2,000, 5,000, 10,000 tenge.

More details for the media representatives is available upon request:

+7 (7172) 77-52-10

e-mail: press@nationalbank.kz

www.nationalbank.kz