Requirements for article formatting

Title page should contain:
1) Title of the article, reflecting its content and issue raised in the article;
2) list of authors, affiliation;
3) abstract, including a characteristic of content of the article, its contribution, novelty, issues raised and main results, as well as a description of the main topic, problem of the object, purpose of the work and its results. Recommended length is 150 words;
4) reservations, disclaimers and recognition of contributions from non-authors; disclosure of information about presence or absence of a conflict of interest;
5) key words;
6) JEL classification of the work. The classifier is available at the following link: https://www.aeaweb.org/econlit/jelCodes.php?view=jel.

Formatting text of the article
1. Text of the article, which has a maximum length of 10,000 words, includes the minimum amount of numerical data necessary only to reflect important quantitative changes and confirm conclusions.

Numerical data are included in tables.

The graph data should not duplicate the data given in the tables.

2. Page numbering of the article is placed on the bottom right side of the page.

3. Font - Times New Roman, font size - 12, line spacing - single, red line - 1.25 cm, alignment - to the width of the page.

4. Separate the integer part of the number from the fractional by comma (example: 235,7). In monetary and percentage terms, indicate 1 decimal place.

5. Text must contain references to each table, graph, chart and annexes ("(Table 1)", "(Figure 1), "(Scheme 1)", "Annex 1, Table 2").

Formatting of tables, graphs, and diagrams
1. Tables, graphs, and diagrams should be editable and formattable.

2. Tables, graphs, and diagrams should be numbered sequentially ("Table 1," "Graph 2," "Diagram 3"). The table, graph, or diagram number should be positioned at the top right corner, using Times New Roman, font size of 12.

3. The title of table, graphics and diagrams is placed at the top center, Times New Roman bold, font size 12.

4. Font inside charts, tables, diagrams should be Times New Roman, font size 10-8.

Formatting of annexes

1. Annexes should include relatively independent and substantial amounts of information.

2. Annexes are numbered sequentially ("Annex 1," "Annex 2"). The annex number should be positioned at the top right corner, using Times New Roman font with a font size of 12.

Formatting of list of references

1. The list of references is given at the end of the article and is drawn up as a general list in increasing numbering as references to them appear throughout the text of the article.

2. The reference list should be organized in the Harvard Reference System style. Only the sources cited in the article's text should be included in the list of reference