

NATIONAL BANK OF KAZAKHSTAN

PUBLIC INFORMATION NOTICE

About the banknote and coin with a denomination of 200 tenge

Astana

July 21, 2023

The National Bank of Kazakhstan, due to incoming inquiries about the refusal to accept banknotes with a denomination of 200 tenge, reminds that these banknotes remain the legal tender and must be accepted for all types of payments throughout the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

200 tenge banknote

200 tenge coin

Refusal to accept banknotes and coins of the national currency in circulation on the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan, which are legal tender, leads to administrative liability as stipulated by Article 206 of the Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan on Administrative Offenses.

Additionally, it is worth noting that the National Bank does not issue new banknotes with a denomination of 200 tenge into circulation. The banknotes of this denomination currently in circulation do not have an expiration date and are gradually withdrawn from circulation as a result of natural deterioration. They are being replaced with coins of 200 tenge denomination.

For any inquiries, please contact the National Bank's contact center 1477.

More detailed information for the mass media representatives is available upon request:

+7 (7172) 77 52 10

e-mail: press@nationalbank.kz

www.nationalbank.kz